

The Six best friends of Bible Study

1. Who? Is talking or being talked to in the text being studied.

2. What? Is the subject or the topic that is being discussed. Look before and after the passage.

3. Where? Is the discussion or activity taking place (town, region, etc.)

4. When? Is the discussion or activity taking place (day, month, year, nighttime, daytime, etc.)

5. Why? What is the purpose of the discussion or activity taking place.

6. How? The people involved respond to the discussion or activity taking place.

To be the most effective in our study of the Bible we should always ask the proper questions.
